

theliteraryorder
Guess the Authors

Across

2. The Great Gatsby, a glittering critique of the American Dream, was written by F. Scott ____.
3. The Picture of Dorian Gray, a witty and dark tale of eternal youth, was written by Oscar ____.
4. A.A. Milne's treasured classic about a honey-loving bear in the Hundred Acre Wood.
6. George Orwell's satirical allegorical novella about a farmyard revolution gone wrong.
7. Paulo Coelho's ultra-popular philosophical fable about an Andalusian shepherd boy named Santiago tracking his destiny.
9. Jane Austen's beloved enemies-to-lovers classic following Elizabeth Bennet and Mr. Darcy: Pride and ____.

Down

1. Mary Shelley's iconic Gothic masterpiece about a creator and his tragic monster.
3. Louisa May Alcott's heartwarming classic about the four March sisters growing up: Little ____.
5. The epic Greek tragedy tracking Odysseus's ten-year journey home, composed by Homer.
8. The surname of the American author who gave us the classic courtroom drama To Kill a Mockingbird.