

Sherlock Holmes

Across

5. The legendary London street where Holmes and Watson shared a flat.
6. The location of the waterfall where Holmes and his rival supposedly fell.
9. The surname of the "Napoleon of Crime" and Sherlock's arch-nemesis.
10. Holmes's favourite musical instrument for "thinking time."

Down

1. This "Diogenes Club" member is Sherlock's even more reclusive brother.
2. The color of the study—the title of the very first Holmes novel.
3. The legendary hound's haunting grounds.
4. Holmes's "Consulting" profession relies on this logical method.
7. The first name of the only woman to ever outsmart Holmes.
8. The loyal doctor and chronicler of all Holmes's cases.