

theliteraryorder
Classic Women Writers

Across

- 6. Anne Bronte's radical feminist novel about a woman fleeing an abusive husband to protect her son
- 9. Jane Austen's iconic romantic masterpiece originally titled First Impressions
- 10. Mary Shelley's groundbreaking sci-fi gothic masterpiece birthed from a ghost story competition

Down

- 1. Charlotte Bronte's gothic romance starring a fierce independent governess at Thornfield Hall
- 2. Emily Bronte's sole tempestuous novel set on the wild stormy Yorkshire moors
- 3. George Eliot's massive, brilliant study of provincial English life and mismatched marriages
- 4. Charlotte Bronte's deeply psychological novel about a woman teaching in a fictional French city

- 5. Anne Brontë's debut novel drawing heavily from her own grueling experiences as a governess
- 7. Louisa May Alcott's beloved semi-autobiographical story about the four March sisters
- 8. Jane Austen's first published novel featuring the contrast between Elinor and Marianne